

Workshop title: “Adapting the Attachment and Biobehavioral Catch-up Intervention for Specific Populations”

The original Attachment and Biobehavioral Catch-up Intervention was developed and tested for parents of babies between the ages of 6 and 24 months. Subsequently we adapted the intervention for toddlers (2-4 year olds), for children adopted following orphanage care, and for use in the prenatal/early infancy period. These adaptations will be discussed in this workshop.